June

Named for the Roman goddess Juno, patroness of marriage and the well-being of women. Also from the Latin word juvenis “young people.”

The Forgotten History Of Father’s Day

Father’s Day was not immediately accepted when it was proposed, and it did not become a national holiday in the U.S. until 1972 during President Richard Nixon’s administration. Why was it a hotly contested debate?

With America’s history, you might think that a holiday recognizing men would be perfectly acceptable. After all, men dominated American society in the early 20th century. In addition, a “Father’s Day” or day that recognizes the role of fathers in the family is an ancient tradition. In history books, there is mention of a Southern European tradition dating back to 1508.

Certainly, in modern days, we do not give Father’s Day a second thought. It’s been almost 50 years since President Nixon’s administration declared the third Sunday in June a day to recognize and honor the role of fathers in society.

Father’s Day Controversy

However, Father’s Day was not immediately accepted when it was proposed. Why not?

Mother’s Day came first, so men in the early 1900s associated such a tribute with women and found the idea too effeminate to their liking. Men viewed the idea of Father’s Day as being similar to Mother’s Day, which was popular with florists; for fathers, it didn’t have the same sentimental appeal. As one historian writes, they “scoffed at the holiday’s sentimental attempts to domesticate manliness with flowers and gift-giving, or they derided the proliferation of such holidays as a commercial gimmick to sell more products—often paid for by the father himself.”

Also, according to Lawrence R. Samuel, the author of American Fatherhood: A Cultural History, men had a different role in the family during the first half of that century. It was patriarchal, so they felt that a special day to exalt fatherhood was a rather silly idea, when it was mothers who were underappreciated.

However, that sentiment changed over time for several reasons.

Watch Service

Watch battery replacement and cleaning are available from Brian Daniels. Brian has a small stock of the most common batteries. Other batteries can be ordered and arrive in a few days. The charge is $2.25 (battery plus sales tax).

Watches can be dropped off in the file container outside Brian's office in B-wing. Be sure the watch is in an envelope with your name on it. You will be notified when your watch is ready, and it can be picked up in the Neighborhood Market. Please pay the volunteer on duty.

Neighborhood Market

We are moved into the "New Space" and we are loving the updated area. It is so nice to be back in our original spot.

If you haven't been in to see the "New" area, stop in and see it; it is so beautiful. We have some new items along with things we have always carried.

If you missed the book signing in May, we will be carrying "Marias Kit of Comfort" in the Market.

Be sure to say Hi and thank the volunteer on duty, if it wasn't for them we wouldn't be able to keep the market open the hours we do.

Our normal market hours are Monday through Friday 9:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m. and 2:00 – 4:00 p.m. Saturday hours 10:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m. (noon) – 1:00 p.m. – 3:00 p.m.
