Night Song

Last night I heard the wild geese fly;
They sounded far away.
And yet I see the countryside
Is turning bronze today.

The sunrise wears a wispy veil
Of Indian Summer smoke;
And on brown hills the cattle graze
Beneath the speckled oak.

I never knew when summer left;
Her exit was so calm.
She must have told the wild geese, though;
Last night I heard their psalm.

June Masters Bacher
