

Resident Council Election

There is a three-year term opening on the Resident Council this fall. The position represents residents in the Manor and needs to be a female. Resident Council is charged with finding nominations for that position.

If you know of someone who you feel would be good in that role, please give their name to any of the Resident Council members. It would be helpful to know if that person is willing to serve.

The election will be held at the November All-Resident Meeting and names will need to be turned in by October 12 so the Resident Council can get bios and set-up the ballot.

Fall Communion

The Timbercrest Community celebrates Worldwide Communion on Thursday, October 2 at 10:00 a.m. in The Assembly Room. All are invited and welcome. Come join in receiving the “Bread and Cup” as we share in song, prayer and spoken Word.

The service will last 30 – 40 minutes. Timbercrest Choir is scheduled to sing, and Beth Sollenberger, Church of the “Brethren Atlantic Southeast District Interim Director of Administration and the Timbercrest Cookie Lady” is sharing a brief meditation. Please mark your calendar and plan to come gather in the Assembly Room. Christians all over the world will celebrate Communion October 5th on Worldwide Communion Sunday. Your presence is a blessing to others.

Contemporary Book Club

The Contemporary Book Club meets every Friday afternoon at 3:00 p.m. in the Conference Room. In “A More Perfect Union” author, Adam Russell Taylor reimagines a contemporary version of the beloved community that will inspire and unite Americans. In the beloved community, neither privilege nor punishment is tied to race, gender, religion, sexual orientation, or economic status, and everyone is able to realize their full potential and thrive. Building the beloved community requires living out a series of commitments, such as true equality, radical welcome, E Pluribus Unum (out of many, one), environmental stewardship, nonviolence, and economic equity. Questions contact David Doudt at 260-578-4748.
